JACKSONVILLE•ONSLow CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCES SMALL BUSINESS WEEK EVENTS

May 6-10 2019

JACKSONVILLE – The Jacksonville•Onslow Chamber of Commerce invites members of the media to join in celebrating Small Business Week. As part of an annual effort each year in conjunction with the Small Business Administration, (SBA) Small Business Week recognizes locally-owned businesses and staff for their work in the community.

This year, Small Business Week takes place May 6-10. To help business owners and staff celebrate, the JCOC will host two awards and networking events.

At noon May 6, the Duke Energy Citizenship and Service Award Luncheon will recognize an individual or organization for service to their community. The luncheon will be held at the Jacksonville Country Club.

At 8 a.m. May 10, First Citizens' Bank will announce the Small Business of the Year winner at the Onslow Memorial Hospital cafeteria. Robert Miller and Dave Green, co-owners of the Flip 'N Axe in Jacksonville, will be the featured speakers.

Small Business Week is made possible by First Citizens' Bank, Duke Energy, Best Buy, Modern Exterminating The Marshall Group, Coastal Carolina Community College Small Business Center, Jacksonville Country Club and Onslow Memorial Hospital.

If you are a member of the accredited media wishing to cover this event or event(s), please RSVP to Kelsey Stiglitz at businessservices@jacksonvilleonline.org. For further information, please contact Kelsey via email or call 910-939-7006.

For updates on Small Business Week and other events, please follow the JCOC Facebook page.
